

Grumpy's Grumblings

September 20, 2012. This report covers events 209 to 213 inclusive, from the Stone Age (Stonebridge) to one of our newest and favourite courses, eQuinelle — which we had the pleasure and privilege of visiting not once, but twice this week.

Although blinded by the light of Pukey J's yellow and Rio's pink pants — and their matching blue belts — Slammers played on at Stonebridge, where dinosaur Davestator took down his two Super Senior opponents, Wally and Rexall (his first ever 0-3 day), to advance to the Final Four... and he earned himself 1st star.

In the Open TC, Rio also advanced to the Final Four, being pinned 3rd star. Who snuck into #2? Well, looky here, TJ became the 34th Slammer ever to get his 150th win. Congrats!

It was not yet the official date of September 21st, however, fall seems to have snuck up on us after that glorious hot and dry summer!

At Falcon Ridge, Davestator made them fall. He struck again, taking 1st star for the 2nd day in a row! Supersy crawled up 30 rungs on the ladder and Taz reigned over IronMaiden to advance to the Final Four of the Ladies B Tour Championship. The she-devil also grabbed 3rd star.

eQuinelle, what can I say? So many TC matches! What was the most amazing thing that happened? Stevie Ray got hit in the calf by a golf ball? Also of great note, Suttly became the 52nd Slammer to record his 100th career win on the 16th, this one over Pommie. He advanced to the D-Class Elite Eight when he took down 7/11 one hole earlier.

Other TC News...

ToothFairy took the Falcon Ridge Cup as the 2012 Ladies Tour Champion — the first TC crowning of the year. Woodsy came out of the forest and chopped down Chilly in the TC Open division.

DeeJay advanced to the Final Four in the Senior division, against Happy, who was not actually happy about it.

Number 7 prevailed over KidsClub and marched on to the finals in the TC C division.

Chill gave ZenGirl the cold shoulder and Small Pak spilled the Juice in the Ladies B TC.

In the Ladies C TC, Aqua turned the lights out on SunShine.

Sunny & SunnyBoy won their Elite Eight Parent-Child TC match with a default over Grumpy & BaxJuice.

Good, better, BESTS!

Wow. What a week! DeeJay, Suttly and Pouf tied their 2012 Slammer bests.

Irons shot a 78, his personal career best, and BigTee was one over his Slammer best.

If a Dragon can Fly, then a Turtle can win a race. Turtle crawled up to #9, all the way from #50, in his 2nd event of the week — and ShortStack managed to hoist himself up to #17 on a course he had never seen. Now that's a tall order!

On a final note, it's time to shine the spotlight on Cuba: he may have been feeling 'blue' but his outfit was not only worthy of a Slammer Tour and eQ hit, he could have graced the cover of GO, yet again!

Slammer quotable of the week... "I had the most stylin' Slammie in the bag until I saw banana balls."

"Although golf was originally restricted to wealthy, overweight Protestants, today it's open to anybody who owns hideous clothing." — Dave Barry, American Columnist

slammertour.com

Keep on Slamming and smiling!
#37 – grumpy@slammertour.ca