

Maloney's Week in Review

August 15-21, 2011

Scramblin' pars, scramblin' eggs, Sun Scramblin' – but still Slammin'!

This week saw more than just a few Slammers take part in the Ottawa Sun Scramble City Championship Week. Many also participated in the four Slammer Tour events that occurred throughout the same week. Now that's trunk Slamming!

First up is the luscious yet challenging Stonebridge which took place on Tuesday. Rookie Gatineau46 had to bail last minute because he ended up in a playoff at Hammond in the Sun Scramble C-Division. While he was duking it out (and making the cut by the way), Cash, Ticklar and Chef took home the star honours by winning all of their matches, along with a few dogs and skins.

Remember those Tour Championships you were once in until you were knocked out? Well, they're still going! (No offence to those still in.) Cash adds to her glorious day by advancing to the final four of the TC Ladies Open by defeating Princess.

Other notable Slammers faring well in the Sun Scramble C-Division were Pommie, Danger, Number 7 and the aforementioned Gatineau46. Notable Slammers faring well in the Ladies Divisions of the Sun Scramble were Triple Putt (winning the Ladies C Division), Mother and Bowler (runners up in the Ladies B), ZenGirl, Juice and SunShine.

Rookie Onsite Coordinator PizzaMan sure has a knack for event organizing. Either he's a school teacher or IronMaiden is his wife. He brought seven other Slammers with him to Falcon Ridge on Wednesday, which coincided with the Promomedia B-Division of the Sun Scramble. Did you know that Promomedia Group also sponsors the B-Class Tour Championship? Start placing your orders for cool promotional items with Promomedia.

I digress... Ticklar! He's on a roll; walking away with nine countable skins. Nine skins wasn't enough though so he also took six points, won his TC Senior match over Happy and, of course, first star honours. Our dear friend Canny Jack doesn't can any putts for birdies but a solid 3-0 performance sets him up for star honours as well.

Notable Slammers faring well in the Promomedia B division of the Sun Scramble were Wins, Hacker, Lenny, Boomerang, Subpar, TeeDub, T-Bone, Pepilepu and Slapshot.

One of the Tour's faves, Casselview, hosted the Slammers on Saturday. Not too far down the road (depending on your definition of 'far') was Championship Saturday for the Sun Scramble at Outaouais. Both courses have some of the best rolling greens in the city; just ask Ruskie! Rolling in three birdie putts and securing two dogs with solid two-putts at Casselview makes Ruskie a no-brainer as first star. Cuba and Shades also won all of their matches.

Charlie? Don't worry, I won't forget about Charlie. 2-0-1!!! Breaking 100 and certainly on the right track, Charlie was the third star. FishHawk takes out The Game in the TC C match while FlameWorker takes out Bookie in the TC Super Senior.

Notable Slammers faring well in the Sun Scramble Open and Senior divisions were Ticklar and KaDaver (senior runners-up), PuttPutt, Toro, Malone, Chef and carcarcar.

Finally at Edelweiss on Sunday, while Championship Sunday at Eagle Creek boasted one of the biggest upsets in the City (I'm sure you know what I'm talking about) – but back to Edelweiss: can I get a B? Can I get a U? An extremely impressive performance by Bulldog as he defeats Ozone, ProZee and Turtle. No skins count for this day but those six points speak for themselves. I know this writer can't wait to face off against the Mighty Bulldog. Stay classy Slammeriegos.
